The Parade Committee

Daniel McGowan

2024 Parade Grand Marshal

Dan McGowan has a shameful secret. He's Scottish. His options for green clothing to wear in the parade are a Celtic FC jersey (which wouldn't be very Irish), or a Boston Celtics jersey (which, as a life-long New York Knicks fan, he would never consider). He's sorry about that.

Now that we got that out of the way, Dan is a Rhode Island-based columnist for the Boston Globe, where he enjoys agitating the state's political class and finding as many creative ways as possible to sneak on to the most elite golf courses and shoot 95. He also writes a popular daily newsletter called Rhode Map.

He previously covered Providence City Hall for six years at Channel 12, where he was part of a team that won a New England Emmy Award for its investigation into a politician doing scandalous things politicians sometimes do in our lovely state. Just ask him about it. He also played on the company kickball team.

Dan grew up in Connecticut, but believes he officially became a Rhode Islander when he was named grand marshal of the parade. He lives in Providence with his wonderful partner, Nora Crowley, and their beautiful son, Jack. They're working hard to make sure Jack's first words are, "Patrick's Pub."

Back to the whole Scottish thing. It's true. Dan's dad grew up in Glasgow, but moved to the US as a teenager, where he hated American sports unless he was watching his son play them. He loved nothing more than bragging about Dan and Dan's older sister, Lauren, who lives in Seattle and works to ensure everyone always has a roof over their heads.

When Dan isn't chasing scoops, he has the career coaching wins record for 8-year-old baseball at Mount Pleasant Little League in Providence. He has already racked up the most losses in league history in his 15 years as a coach, but that's a different story.

Dan is so honored to be this year's grand marshal. He hopes you'll adopt him as an Irishman the way you've allowed him to become a real Rhode Islander.

James P. Riley

2024 Deputy Grand Marshal

James P. Riley is that rare Connecticut native who has become a Rhode Island treasure. Known universally as Jim or Jimmy, he is the fourth of seven children born to John and Marion Walsh Riley of New Britain, CT. His family's Irish roots are in a town near Doolin in County Clare.

Not one to be ignored, as some may dub a middle child, Jim made a point of standing out from childhood. He attended Somers High School and Manchester Community College. He was a two-sport athlete playing both soccer and baseball.

Jim began a long career in the labor movement as a butcher for Stop & Shop in the 1970s. In the early 80's he traded his meat-cutting career for a position as an organizer with the United Food and Commercial Workers International. Organizing sent Jim from one end of the country to the other, and many points in between as he organized packinghouse workers across the Bible Belt, retail food workers in large cities, and brought nurses into the union fold in the Northwest.

Following 20 years on the road, Jim settled in Rhode Island in 1997. He took over as Secretary-Treasurer for Local 328 in Providence where he continued to use his skills, charisma and strong work ethic as an organizer.

Ever committed to the Labor movement, Jim has served as Vice-President of the Rhode Island and Massachusetts AFL-CIOs and worked with the Institute for Labor Studies and Research in Rhode Island. He is a member of the Rhode Island Labor History Society. Jim serves on the Board of Justice Assistance, where he endorses their efforts to assist victims of crimes and provide offender rehabilitation programs. He was inducted into the Rhode Island Heritage Hall of Fame in 2018.

Jim's interest in the fine arts is part of the family bloodline. His mom was a follower of the Great American Songbook; in 1939 she established the Riley School of Dance. He often arrived home to find classes in session. Perpetuating their mother's interests and talent, Jim's sister majored in dance, ultimately taking charge of the school which has now been passed to the third generation of the Riley family. Yearly recitals often include Irish dance routines.

Jim was appointed to the State Council on the Arts by Governor Chafee, and to the Rhode Island Council on Humanities by Governor Raimondo. He presently serves on the Rhode Island Health Services Council.

Of his many talents and accomplishments, Jim may be best known for his dedication to non-profit and philanthropic endeavors. A longtime member of the Providence St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee, Jim for many years has been the Voice of the Parade, as well as an engaging master of ceremonies and effective fundraiser for many charitable events throughout Rhode Island. He is most proud of his efforts on behalf of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and the ALS Association of Rhode Island, where he was named ALS Advocate of the Year in 2017.

In retirement Jim continues to support the labor community, engage with many charitable organizations, and advocate for the underserved in our communities. He is an accomplished pen-and-ink and watercolor artist, and a crossword puzzle aficionado. Jim has long been celebrated as the most natty dresser in our state's labor movement.

Something you may not know about our Deputy Grand Marshal... Jim was first runner-up for "Mr. Lisdoonvarna" at the world-famous Lisdoonvarna Matchmaking Festival in County Clare several years ago.

Maryellen Goodwin

2024 Parade Dedication

This year's parade is dedicated to the memory of Maryellen Goodwin, a staunch advocate of our parade and all things Irish.

Senator Goodwin, a Democrat who represented Smith Hill and parts of Elmhurst and Mount Pleasant, died last April after a courageous bout with cancer. She was just 53.

Maryellen was the daughter of the late Senator Thomas and Patricia (Hogan) Goodwin. First elected in 1986, Maryellen served District 1 at the Statehouse for nearly four decades. It was a rare district that got more dedicated service than Senator Goodwin gave to her constituents. At the time of her passing, she was Senate Majority Whip. She learned politics under the tutelage of her father, Tom Goodwin, who served five terms representing the district.

From her childhood, Maryellen was marinated in the culture and concerns of her neighborhood; she was educated at St. Patrick's High School and Rhode Island College. A woman of deep faith, she was a St. Patrick's parishioner. Her love and concern for family and friends was immeasurable; and her nieces and nephews were among the greatest joys in her life.

Her first elected office was as a delegate to the 1986 state Constitutional Convention. Proud of her Irish heritage, Senator Goodwin was known universally as a strong advocate for her neighborhood and the city she loved; and was often a Statehouse voice for those who had none. She was widely respected for her hard work and effectiveness as a lawmaker. Her easy smile and disarming humor won her the affirmation, friendship and love of both Democratic and Republican colleagues.

Maryellen was a crucial advocate for such initiatives as the Maryellen Goodwin Colorectal Screening Act, which she sponsored before her diagnosis, that ensures all Rhode Islanders have access to life-saving medical screenings. As senator, she also authored the state's Paid Sick Leave Law, as well as important measures in child-care, domestic violence protection, public safety, worker protections, access to health care and nursing home safety.

There was no bigger supporter of the Providence St. Patrick Day Parade than Maryellen Goodwin. The committee is proud to dedicate the parade to the memory of this great woman.

Providence has a great history of St. Patrick's Day parades and celebrations and our Parade Committee is proud to continue this long-standing tradition. Some of our history has been lost to the passage of time, and there are other gaps – pieces unknown to us - that need to be filled. The Parade Committee is always interested in learning more about the history of the Irish and parades in our community. Please reach out if you are able to help us complete our timeline of Grand Marshals, share some information or wish to be involved on the Committee.

PLEASE HELP US TO ASSURE THE LONG-TERM FUTURE OF THE RHODE ISLAND IRISH FAMINE MEMORIAL!

Because our original Members are rapidly aging out and dying off, we now expect that the fundamental work of the Rhode Island Irish Famine Memorial Committee, Inc., as a nonprofit, tax-exempt historical and educational organization, will be completed by the end of 2024.

The legal process of transforming the current Famine Committee into a successor entity which will assume permanent responsibility for the long-term custodial care of the Famine Memorial and its entire site, including the future installation of an Irish Unification Monument there, is well underway!

You can help to assure that the Famine Memorial will be preserved for many future generations of visitors by making a tax-deductible contribution, in any amount, to our "Endowment Fund."

A generous, anonymous Donor has offered to match your gift, dollar for dollar, up to a total of $35,000. This means that whatever you choose to give to our Endowment Fund will be doubled in value! Just write "Endowment Fund" in the Memo line on your check and we will do the rest.

DON'T MISS THIS UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO HONOR THE VICTIMS AND SURVIVORS OF IRELAND'S "GREAT FAMINE OF 1845-1851" AS WELL AS THEIR DESCENDANTS TOO.

Please make your tax-deductible Endowment Fund gift check, payable to:

R.I. Irish Famine Memorial Committee, Inc.
P.O. Box 28077
Providence, RI 02908

Finally, it is still not too late to purchase a Donor Brick or Granite Flagstone at the Famine Memorial site if you wish to do that also. Please visit our website: <https://rifaminememorial.com> for details.

Thank you all for more than twenty-five years in support of the Famine Memorial Project. The virtual completion of our work in 2024 would not have been possible without the tireless commitment of each and every one of you to this magnificent tribute project!"

Rhode Island Irish Famine Memorial's Tribute to John Gordon

A Reminder: Justice has no statute of limitations!

John Gordon was hanged in 1845 for a murder that many historians, and legal professionals, think he did not commit. I was asked by my constituents to introduce a House Resolution that would request Governor Chafee pardon John Gordon.

On June 29, 2011, Governor Lincoln Chafee granted a pardon to John Gordon at a ceremony held in the same room in which John Gordon was tried and found guilty in 1844.
